OUR BRAND

Acquiring a new language is so much more than learning new words. It's learning a new way of thinking. A new way of seeing the world. It changes you, transforms you. It opens you to new parts of yourself. Learning languages with LMA is not going to school, it's going on an adventure, one you share with other members of the LMA community. The adventure and the community you take it with bathe your mind in messages of success every step of the way. You don't just learn a new language, you learn success in a new language.

TALKING & WRITING ABOUT LMA

FOUNDER'S STORY

Matej first fell in love with polyglotism when language lifted him from loneliness in his youth. Later, he saw that same pain in others from that same inability to communicate, and in that he saw opportunity. “If I were the world’s greatest juggler, people would be impressed, but I’d rather show them how to juggle instead.” Matej does not juggle. He engages with people. So when traditional methods failed to impart to him the ability to converse in other languages, he went on an adventure across the globe.

He befriended polyglots in many places. He listened to their journeys to mastering multiple languages. Then he took the best elements of each, combined them, refined them, and developed a new method of language acquisition. Equipped with something special, he built a company to deliver it: Language Magic Adventures. Through this, he offers others the opportunity to go on adventures similar to his own. Matej does not juggle, he acquires languages, and through his company he teaches others to learn new languages just like him.

WHO WE ARE

Language Magic Adventures was born out of a new paradigm of what it means to be human. We are the world's most innovative, cutting-edge laboratory of language acquisition techniques and approaches. Through this, we offer a way for people to communicate in new languages with freedom, power, and joy. They build bonds and establish connections as part of becoming multilingual communicators. They are free to be and act in several languages with diverse people and cultures. These individual breakthroughs help bring the world together one new person at a time into soul-centered communities of clients and team members that create enormous impact and touch millions of lives.

WHAT WE DO

We are a collection of people dedicated to helping others expand their worlds by acquiring new languages. There are plenty of language schools and online courses, but we differ from all of them because we don't just teach a language, we teach language acquisition.

WHAT MAKES US SPECIAL?

Almost everyone has taken a language course before. Maybe it was part of their primary education. Maybe it was something they pursued on their own. Almost everyone has, and almost everyone has been disappointed with the results. This is because most traditional language classes treat language as a subject no different from physics or history: something to be studied, memorized, and perhaps understood.

We teach language acquisition, which understands that language is more than a collection of words and grammatical rules. It is a means of self-expression. It is a bridge that connects people. It's more than facts and information. It needs to be treated differently.

>>

So our curriculum uses five forces that rewire our adventurers' brains to acquire their target language in ways traditional learning does not.

FORCE OF INPUT

Your ability to understand the target language. When language becomes a series of words and phrases instead of meaningless sounds, you feel this force. This is how we learn languages.

FORCE OF MIMICKING

The ability to hear and speak like a native speaker. Beyond understanding and expression, learning to sound more like a native speaker helps establish bonds with others in that language. This requires its own training and practice separate from vocabulary and grammar.

FORCE OF EXPRESSION

Your ability to express yourself in the target language. This often trails input because you must understand a language before you can speak it.

FORCE OF RELATIONSHIP

The care you have for another person. This key force sets us apart. All interpersonal relationships are forged in part through language, but language alone creates weak bonds. When two people genuinely like one another, it creates a drive to share. This connection motivates the brain to rewire itself to acquire the target language faster so it can use that language in these exchanges. The other forces are vital, but this one is key.

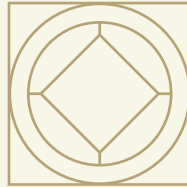

FORCE OF COMMITMENT

Our commitment to the adventurers' success and their commitment to being present at the sessions and using their tools.

OUR PRINCIPLES

TRANSFORMATION

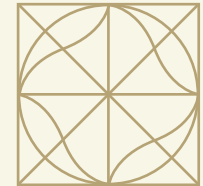

NEW LANGUAGE.
NEW WORLD.
NEW YOU.

Language is more than words; it is a way of thinking and understanding the world. When you learn a new language, your capacity to experience life expands. This experience in turn grows you.

UNIQUENESS

NOT A COURSE.
AN EXPERIENCE.

LMA teaches new languages, but this is not school; you do not attend class. Instead, you enter an experience tailored to you, your interests, your goals, and your gaps. It meets you right where you are, and then introduces you to the right mentors and material to guide you towards your breakthrough.

SUCCESS

SPEAKING THE LANGUAGE OF SUCCESS IN MANY LANGUAGES.

LMA exposes adventurers to world-class content in their target language that embodies expansion and success. How we speak shapes our experience. Adventurers learn to speak in ways of opportunity, accomplishment, and connection.

COMMUNITY

STEP INTO A
BORDERLESS WORLD TOGETHER.

Learning in LMA happens as a result of relationships. Adventurers become friends with someone from another country and culture, and learn new ways of thinking and living through exploring these new relationships.

TALKING & WRITING ABOUT LMA

Lean into our principles when writing about LMA. These are the core of our identity and what we offer those who come to us. It's important to stress that we are not a language school and we don't offer language courses. We are a community that supports and guides our clients through an adventure of personal discovery and transformation that happens to include acquiring a new language.

SPECIFIC LANGUAGE GUIDANCE

#01 Magic

You may see this word a lot in internal communications, but it should not appear in any customer-facing material. We can and should write about the magical qualities of the experience adventurers can expect, but without ever using the word “magic.”

#02 Transformation

Our clients do not just learn, they transform. Unlike “magic,” this is not a forbidden word, but we should focus more on describing the qualities of personal transformation instead of leaning on the word itself too much.

#03 Language acquisition

Use this term over “language learning.” Language acquisition speaks to more than learning words and grammar; it refers to learning accent and culture as well. It's a more complete and organic kind of learning that emerges from a deep connection with a native speaker. Language learning is clinical, not experiential, and solitary. This is not what we offer.

#04 Adventurer

Use this term to refer to LMA clients. They are not students because while they do study, they don't just study. They engage with a native speaker who guides them through a journey of self-discovery and shows them the world through a completely new frame. The experience challenges them in many ways and teaches them far more than a new language.

OUR LOGO

The logo is composed of a simple combination of meaningful elements: a spark that represents the curiosity in the center as the beginning of journey, combined with an oval that shows how it evolves on multi-dimensional level, and the circle to express that LMA is about a holistic experience of human growth than just a language learning.
